SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall pay any restitution and special assessment that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or Probation Officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of supervised release. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
3. All computers, computer-related devices, including, but not limited to, personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), Internet appliances, electronic games, and cellular telephones, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the Internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers, or similar media and their peripheral equipment, used by the defendant, shall be subject to search and seizure and the installation of search and/or monitoring software and/or hardware, including unannounced seizure for the purpose of search. The defendant shall not add, remove, upgrade, update, reinstall, repair, or otherwise modify the hardware or software on the computers, computer-related devices, or their peripheral equipment, nor shall he hide or encrypt files or data without prior approval of the Probation Officer. Further, the defendant shall provide all billing records, including telephone, cable, Internet, satellite, and the like, as requested by the Probation Officer.
4. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or computer-related devices, including, but not limited to, personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), Internet appliances, electronic games, and cellular telephones, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the Internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers, or similar media with access to any online service at any location (including his place of employment), without the prior approval of the Probation Officer. This includes access through any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any public or private computer network system. The defendant shall not have another individual access the Internet on his behalf to obtain files or information which he has been restricted from accessing himself, or accept restricted files or information from another person.

5. The defendant shall maintain a daily log of all addresses he accesses via any personal computer (or other computer used by him), computer-related devices, including, but not limited to, personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), Internet appliances, electronic games, and cellular telephones, as well as their peripheral equipment other than for authorized employment, and make this log available to the probation officer.
6. The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall provide proof of registration to the Probation Officer within five days of release from imprisonment.
7. The defendant shall participate in a sex offender treatment program, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of such program, including, but not limited to, polygraph. The Probation Officer shall disclose the presentence report and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports to the treatment provider.
8. The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant is to pay part or all cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments shall never exceed the total cost of mental health counseling. The actual co-payment schedule shall be determined by the probation officer.
9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's psychological/psychiatric disorder(s) to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment, as directed by the Probation Officer.
